U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 11-03)

ADVISORY ACTION cnontinued:

The proposed after final amendment filed on 12/1/03 has been considered.

The proposed amendment has not been entered for the following reasons:

- a) the amendment proposes to add new claims, which may raise new matter, require new search; e.g., the proposed claim 57 recites the 'common ligand is the cofactor nicotinamide adenine dinucleotide or nicotinamide adenine di-nucleotide phosphate or mimic of said cofactor...' Applicants argue that the new claims have suport from the original claims 9, 11-12. However, the original claims do not recite cofactor is "mimic of nicotinamide adenine dinucleotide or mimic of nicotinamide adenine di-nucleotide phosphate. Applicants have not pointed out any other support in the specification.
- b) Applicants proposed amendment adds new claims without cancelling claims.
- c) the proposed amendment and response would not overcome the rejections of record under 35 USC. 112, first paragraph or the art rejections of record, for the reasons set forth in the previous office action.
